I am a writer / illustrator (circle one or both) applying for Associate membership.

Privileges of Full membership over and above those of Associate membership include the following:

- inclusion in the online catalogue and other advertising
- participation in book fairs and other events
- voting on issues and in elections
- holding office

Associate members may upgrade to Full membership once they meet one of the above requirements.

All members can benefit from exposure on the IAIC website, mutual support, sharing ideas, and attendance at monthly meetings.

The IAIC is a non-profit organization. Annual membership fees cover the costs of running the website, advertising, participation fees for events, etc.

Full membership is $20 per year and Associate membership is $10 per year.

I, _____, guarantee that my work is not pornographic nor could it be construed as "hate" literature as defined by the Criminal Code of Canada. I have read and agree with the IAIC Vision.
