

Inklings About INKLINGS®

A lifelong resident of Guelph, Ontario, Burl Levine has been involved in creative writing since his university days at Wilfrid Laurier.

For over 25 years, he taught Canadian literature, business communication, report writing, and academic upgrading courses at Conestoga College. During this time he honed his proofreading and editing skills and now offers these services, plus tutoring, to individuals and organizations.

In 1991, he collaborated with an artist from Waterloo, Ontario, to produce his book of poetry entitled Inklings About Relationships ($8.95), a poetic narrative combining calligraphy and gender-neutral language to insightfully describe various sentiments about relationships. His book is available at The Bookshelf and at Barber Gallery or directly from the author.

This award-winning writer's works have appeared in periodicals such as The Sovereign, good times, and Tone and in literary anthologies such as On the Threshold and Words and Wonders.

He has also participated in poetry readings at various venues such as the Orillia International Poetry Festival, the Eden Mills Literary Festival, the Festival of Coffeehouse Poets, and The Bookshelf.

He is a member of the Independent Authors & Illustrators of Canada (IAIC).
